Is an attribute of manhood universally desired. Few people understand that the only source of physical strength is food, and that every one who has sufficient nourishing food should be strong. But there are thousands of puny people who have plenty of good food. How is that explained? The city to aid in the fight for a new corract with the New Haven Water Company at "fair rates." The Council has sent the following circular to all the dergymen in the city: "For the last few years we have had an epidemic of sermons on 'Why Men Do Not Attend Church,' and many replies have been given to that ques-tion, the large majority of them being to the effect that ministers, as a rule, do not support the people as against monopoly, and that the church is monopoly, and that the church is usually on the side of plutocracy and greed. The common people of the city are at present demanding a small part of their God given right to inherit the earth. The issue is as clear as day; one between the rights of the people versus corporate greed; and what part have you taken in it? With one notable exception the clergy of the city are with the professors, bankers, lawyers and the so-called cultured element. "We, therefore, as the representatives of those whom the Man of Galilee loved, deem it our duty to call your at-tention to the fact that in some way you have become divorced from the position taken by him. He worked for the poot; you are always on the side of the rich. He had no place to lay His head; you have elegant furnishings. We be-lieve that when some man gets some-thing for nothing, some other man must produce something and get nothing in return. We know that if a share in the New Haven Water Company has a par value of $50, and yet sold for $118, some men somewhere had to slave by the sweat of his brow to make up the difference of $68.

"Therefore, reverend sire, believing and knowing these things and at the same time watching your attitude toward them, can you blame us for not supporting the institution that is so clearly opposed to justice, humanity and brotherhood?"

Health good. My birthday is February 2. Would it not be nice to hear from you on that day? I dote on hear from you on that day? I dote on housekeeping or home making. At present I am boarding, as my parents do not live here. Hoping this may meet your approval and I can hear soon, yours sincerely.

COOKED CELERY FOR RHEUMATISM -One of the latest is that ordery is a cure for rheumatism; indeed, it is asserted that the disease is impossible if the vegetable be cooked and freely eaten. The celery should be cut into pieces and boiled in water until soft, and the water drunk by the patient. Put new milk, with a little flour and tmeg, into a saucepan, with the boiled celety, serve it warm with pieces of i tosst; eat it with potatoes and the painful aliment will soon yield, Such is the declaration of a physician who has again and again tried the experi-ment, and with uniform success. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE comes pretty THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE comes pretty near being an ideal rewspaper. It is clean without being dull, enterprising without bing sensational, and as fair and accurate as buman foreithought and cave can make it. THE TRIBUNE has positive convictions of its own on all the great questions of the day, but it is broad enough and liberal enough to give all reasonal opportunity to "hear the other side.

all reasonal opportunity to "hear the other side.

Every occurrence or development of sufficient importance to engage the attention of self respecting, intelligent people is sure to find adequate treatment in THE TRIBUNE, by text or picture, or both.

What is true of The Daily Tribune applies with force, though in medified form, to the other publications issued from The Tribune office. THE TRIBUNE WEEKLY REVIEW, issued every Saturday, enables persons living in the small towns or villages to keep in touch with the best thought of the nation, just as well as there at the educational centres. It records and reviews all the essential bappenings of the week—the things that count in making up the ledger of progress. For sending to friends abroad you cannot find anything better.

cannot find anything better.

THE TRIBUNE FARMER is, as its name implies, devoted to the interests of farmors and their families. It is meant to be their friend, adviser and helper in the fullest meaning of the words, bringing to them all the available facts and information calculated to aid them. And special care is taken to provide interesting reading matter for the women and young folks. $1 a year.

THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is, if the phrase may be permitted, the "beef tea" of THR DAILY TRIBUNE. In the three issues of each week it summarizes THE DAILY TRIBUNE, while giving in their entirety many of the very beet features and illustrations. For those who have neither the time nor the means to indulge in a metropolitan daily newspaper, and yet want to get all the news of the world treated from a nettonal point of view, THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is just the paper. Price $1.50 a year.
